

Jan Wejchert

5 January 1950 – 31 October 2009

Founder – Visionary – Entrepreneur

With great sadness, the ITI Group informs about the loss of Jan Wejchert, the Founder, Visionary and Entrepreneur of the ITI Group. Jan Wejchert unexpectedly passed away in the early hours of 31 October 2009.

Jan Wejchert was one of Poland's first private entrepreneurs and founded the ITI Group in 1984. Together with his business partners and close friends, Mariusz Walter and Bruno Valsangiacomo, Jan Wejchert created, led and developed the ITI Group into Poland's and Central and Eastern Europe's premier media group. Jan Wejchert's vision and belief that each of the ITI Group's business activities should be a market leader and best in class operation has come to life and through TVN, Onet, 'n' Multikino and Legia are known to every Pole.

Jan Wejchert pioneered Polish private entrepreneurship by having founded the Polish Business Roundtable in 1992 one of the most important organizations of private enterprises in Poland. He was awarded by the Polish President the Knight's Cross of the Order of Polonia Restituta for his outstanding achievement for the development of the Polish economy. Through ITI Group Jan Wejchert has been a driving force for the establishment of independent news and information in the young Polish democracy. We lose a wonderful friend and a great personality.
